Junior Summer Programmes

English Plus Tennis Camp: SUM 3

Overview:

Together with the prestigious David Lloyd Centre we organize a Summer Tennis Camp, which combines expert English-language tuition with tennis coaching . The course is designed for students between the ages of 11 and 17 years and offers young people the possibility to improve both their English and tennis skills in a two-week programme. The David Lloyd centre is located in close proximity to a number of our Junior Summer centres.

Timetable:

Monday – Friday Afternoons:
The objective of this camp is to provide young and enthusiastic students with the opportunity to avail themselves of the excellent facilities and excellent tennis coaching at the prestigious David Lloyd centre. As well as 10 championship indoor acrylic courts and 5 outdoor astro turf courts, David Lloyd Riverview offers a very fine team of tennis coaches from around the world. The aim of this camp is to improve the students' tennis skills in a friendly environment focusing on the needs of each individual. Equipment used is specifically designed and adapted for children of different size and strength. The emphasis is placed on teaching the right technique through fun games and drills according to the different levels involved.

Education and culture form an integral part of the programme, and complementary activities such as organized games, tournaments and evening activities are planned. Each participant receives a Tennis Camp diploma at the end of the programme.

Evenings:
2 activities per week included in the programme.

Weekends:
Choice of 1 or 2-day excursion options (one 1-day excursion per week included in the course fee and 2-day excursions available at a supplement).
