

Schmallenberg

ages 14-18

Schmallenberg is a typical town in the Sauerland, an area known as the "land of a thousand mountains." Anyone who has ever been there will understand why the region has a reputation as one of Germany's most popular vacation destinations. With 26,000 residents, Schmallenberg is a quiet resort town with a charming, historical city center studded with half-timbered houses and narrow alleys.

Our students are guests at the Bad Fredeburg Academy, which is located in a district of Schmallenberg. The very picturesque center of this little town is only a few minutes' walk from the school. Classes take place in the local school, only 150m away from the academy. The academy is located in a very quiet area surrounded by parks. Students can soak up the peaceful atmosphere of the grounds and the town. Schmallenberg is especially popular for its flexible system of courses, with weekly arrival and departure.
