The motto at CAE is: "England is our Classroom". In other words your English learning should not just be during class – it should go on everywhere, and all the time. That's why there are all kinds of original and exciting events in and outside the school most nights of the year (and every night during the summer!). We can also help you take full advantage of Cambridge – one of the world's great student cities – and each weekend you can choose excursions to other parts of England, or even to other countries. It's impossible not to have a great time!

CAE Social Organisers - a great team!

Our Social Organisers are responsible for organising all aspects of social life within the school. Not only do they arrange parties, dances and excursions, they are also available to help you if you want to plan your own free-time programme. Their office is near the cafeteria, and they love to have visitors.

Excursions

Many students come to Britain hoping to see such places as London, Stonehenge, or the Scottish Highlands. We can suggest several different trips for you each weekend. Some are quite close to Cambridge. Our students can also go on excursions to Ireland, Wales, Scotland – even to European cities. All are economical – and much more fun than just travelling on your own!

A Typical Week of Fun!

Let's imagine you're planning your free time for this week. On Monday you might want to try a Cambridge disco that's very popular with international students. On Tuesday there are going to be some good films shown on the large TV screen. On Wednesday you can go with your friends on a trip to Cambridge city centre. On Thursday, the Brazilian students at CAE are giving a party for the rest of the school – with Brazilian music and dancing (you could even learn to dance the Samba!) There are several excursions available on Saturday: to London, to Oxford and to Paris. If you can't decide which one to take, talk to your Social Organisers. On Sunday, if you're not still on an excursion, you might want a rest! You can always walk over to the school after lunch and watch DVDs or do some sport with your friends. Friday is your chance to experience some Cambridge culture: a concert or even a summer Shakespeare play in one of the university gardens. And remember - there will be different entertainment and excursions next week!

Sport at CAE

You can play volleyball, tennis and football at no extra cost. Golf and swimming are all available near the school as an extra. If you have other sporting interests our Social Organiser is there to help you find the nearest clubs and facilities to the school.
