Paid Internship

Students are responsible for finding their own jobs. IGK staff will assist students with their job search and CV preparation. Positions will mainly be in the hospitality and tourism sectors (dishwasher, preparation cook, server, housekeeper, host/hostess, retail shop assistant, bartender, barista etc.) in Kelowna.

Other Information

VISA: If a student's visa is denied or a student cancels the program before it begins a $200 application fee will be applied. Please see the IGK refund policy for full refund information. Contact the nearest Canadian Embassy prior to applying to see if a work and study or working holiday visa is available for your country.

Accommodation: Homestay, airport transfers etc., are as per the 2014 IGK fee schedule. Students are not permitted to stay in an IGK homestay during the work portion of their program.
