

Deutsch für Führungskräfte

German for Executives

The Cities

Managers can choose from one of two locations to learn German: the capital city of Berlin (3.4 mill. inhabitants), a dynamic center of internationally-oriented economic, cultural and educational activity, or the charming village of Bad Schussenried in the southern part of the country. In both places, we offer intensive German courses which are individually customized: either at a contemporary building in the downtown Mitte district of metropolitan Berlin (see p. 12, ff) or on a large campus in the historic cloister town of Bad Schussenried (p. 22), surrounded by a magnificent landscape and enchanting tranquility.
