Bath

- Bath is an ideal centre for the young Time Traveller!
- Bath is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, rebuilt in the 18th Century Georgian style of architecture which you can still see today and includes the beautiful Crescent and Circus.
- Bath today is a busy city with 1/4 million visitors each year and a large student population, all enjoying the museums, shops and cafés in the city centre.
- Famous people have a connection with Bath - including Jane Austen and Charles Dickens - and in our own times, Harry Potter 'visited' nearby Lacock Abbey.

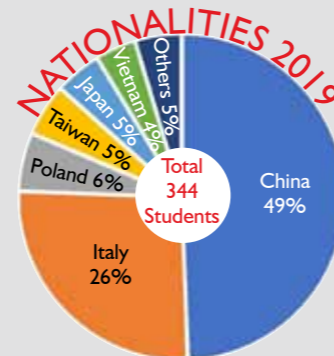

KINGSWOOD SCHOOL

The school opened in Bath in 1852 and is one of the best independent schools in the UK today.

- "Quality of boarding is excellent" (Kingswood ISI report 2015)
- Safe campus with all accommodation and facilities on site
- Easy access to historic Bath city centre and shops
- High level of staff supervision to ensure students are safe, happy and integrating with others
- Indoor swimming pool, large sports hall and Astroturf
- Sports include tennis, badminton, football, frisbee & more!
- Arts & crafts include T-shirt design, drawing, costumes & more!
- Drama and dance activities available
- Full breakfast-to-bedtime programme to keep students busy
- 15 classrooms, each with whiteboard, CD, DVD and TV

"I like the lessons because the teachers are friendly and kind. I feel like I am at home!!"
Pedro from Portugal
