ST. MARGARET'S SCHOOL

St. Margaret's School in the quaint town of Bushey, Hertfordshire, was founded in 1749 and is now one of the oldest independent girl's schools in the UK. The magnificent and unique "Harry Potter" style boarding school with its beautiful grounds provides both an excellent and secure learning environment for students. Conveniently located within 60 minutes of three major London airports (Heathrow, Luton or Stansted – and only a further 30 minutes from Gatwick), the school boasts an ideal location with the centre of the bustling capital city of London only a short journey away on public transport. Students are therefore able to enjoy the best of both worlds; the excitement of London and the peace and tranquility of St. Margarets.
